The Australian Pink Show is excited to announce the Ultimate “Rock Versus Pop” Show, Pink Versus Gaga! Australia’s best and most spectacular “Ultimate” Tribute Show!

P!nk - With countless top 10 singles, sold out tours and record breaking attendances, without doubt, P!nk is the most popular and dazzling “Rock Goddess” of the international music scene.

Gaga - Having sold 27 million albums and 146 million singles, Gaga is among the best-selling musicians of all time. Known as the “Queen of Pop”, Gaga is sure to amaze!

This is a Tribute to two of the most influential female artists of all time!

Pink Versus Gaga– Australia’s best and most spectacular “Ultimate” tribute show!

The performers behind ‘The Australian Pink Show – Pink Versus Gaga’ are:

Mount Isa born singer and musician Kim Boath. Kim is a powerful performer in her own right, accomplished and versatile with outstanding vocal talent.

Camden , NSW born singer and musician, Koby Lee. Koby is a passionate singer/songwriter, with killer dance moves. She emulates Lady Gaga right down to every move!

Kim and Koby are complimented by Queensland’s best musicians. The Pink Show band are consummate professionals, all with international touring experience. All in all this guarantees a magical show spectacular, an experience of a life time.

The Band

Jim Cowling is an Aussie Drummer based on the Gold Coast, QLD. "Jimmy" as we call him has played in many different bands like: Uncanny Xmen, Boom Crash Opera, Kids in the Kitchen, Models, Choir Boys and too many more to mention.. He also has played in many tribute shows and cover bands, so his experience is varied and he guarantees to put on a show.

Jimmy joined The Australian Pink Show in early 2017 & portrays "Mark Schulman" (Pink's Drummer) to the Tee!

Jim Cowling

Chris Beavis is an English Guitarist who moved to our great country 7 years ago. Chris has been playing in our shows for the majority of his time in Australia.

Chris has travelled the world as a "Rock Guitar God" (You will understand why we call him this when you meet him).

With stage presence and showmanship, Chris takes the show to an upper level, he is a highly entertaining individual.

Chris plays the role of "Justin Derrico" portraying all of Justin's on stage flare and connection with "Pink" aka "Kim".

Chris Beavis

Grant Boath is an Aussie Bass player based on the Gold Coast, QLD. Grant has a strong heritage in bass playing and in the music industry in SA.

He is also the musical director for the show, so all the special effects, lighting and staging props are designed and programmed by him..

We would love to say he plays the part of "Eve Gardner" Pink's Bass player... But he wont wear a dress... still we think he looks great just the way he is...

Grant Boath

Rebel a Canberra born vocalist that has had over 15 years experience in music, stage and dance both here in Australia and across the pacific..

Rebel has extensive experience in theatre productions like Flashdance, Cats and Saturday night fever, just to name a few..

Rebel brings a mountain of talent and a fun, exciting, friendly soul to the stage, you will love her just as much as we do!

Rebel Bliss

Production

Production is supplied and owned by the Australian Pink Show Team. Over $200,000 has been spent on our Sound and Lighting Equipment. From Video Drop Screens to Atmospheric Effects, there is not a better production setting in any Tribute Show in Australia.

Guy Samin

Guy Samin is one of the leading Sound Engineers for the Gold Coast Exhibition Centre, on weekends he comes out and plays with us. Guy has been a Sound Engineer for all of his life, he is the favored Engineer for National Touring Bands as he is very well known to produce incredible sound. We are blessed to have Guy on our team.
